Six years ago, we began our life together at Fort Cherry by entering these same doors. Although we were from four different areas, we soon became interwoven through our shared experiences. We gained unity, and this unity is illustrated by our theme . . .

Getting a yearbook to press is one of the most hectic jobs undertaken by seniors and Miss O'Bryon. A theme must be arranged, copy must be written, and layouts for the different sections must be planned. The sense of achievement comes, however, when the dummy is completed and the deadline is met. Being a Panorama staff member requires imagination, ingenuity, and creativity. The advertising, typing, photography, sports, class, and activities sections all work hard together to complete the job.

"I hope you know what you're doing."

Working on the staff of the Pinnacle requires time, hard work, and ability in writing.

This year's Journalism class, taught by Mr. Noll, was responsible for the output of the Pinnacle. The co-editors, general staff reporters, sports writers, and typists all contribute in furnishing the school with up-to-date news and views.

National Honor Society is a selective organization which encourages good character, leadership, and school service. Superior ratings in these areas, as well as a B average or better are requirements of these members.

An induction ceremony is held each year for new members at which the senior officers speak on the four qualities — scholarship, leadership, character, and service. At this ceremony membership cards are presented to first year members and pins to second year members.

Student Council is an elected student delegation that handles problems, ideas, and diplomatic functions for the student body.

Student Council is the school's service organization, it is dedicated to establishing a better school. This year the Council has sold Christmas Candles and sweatshirts. With this money it will buy pins for the National Honor Society, coke for the basketball team, and honey for the wrestlers.

International Thespians

The Drama Club was formed to encourage and develop dramatic and theatre arts at Fort Cherry.

International Thespian Troup 3309, is the governing body of the club. Drama Club members become International Thespians through activeness and service to the club.

Only a man of Mr. Horner's knowledge and experience could sponsor such an active organization.

Nearly 50 students are enrolled in Speech at Fort Cherry in two sections which meet during Periods 5 and 7. During the year's course, students learn: to make formal speeches, the basics of parliamentary procedure, to act in short dramas, and to take part in informal discussions and debates.

Speech is student oriented with emphasis upon practical application, rather than formal textbook instruction.

The James C. Dunn chapter of the Western Region PFTA is one of Fort Cherry's largest clubs. It enables its members to further their teaching knowledge and deepen their interests in the field of education. The FTA is a club of many activities: providing ushers at Open House, sponsoring Student-Teacher Day, Teacher Appreciation Day, and sending Christmas cards to retired teachers. The club, in addition to those activities, goes on a field trip, attends a WRPFTA Conference, and has an annual banquet.

Seated — Sponsor, Mrs. Ryan; Standing — Treas. T. Campbell, V. Pres. B. Sergi, Pres. J. Irwin, Prog. Ch. R. Semenick, Sec. L. Lonchick

The Math Club is Fort Cherry's most recently established activity.

It was created to promote interest in mathematics and give insight into areas involving mathematics.

The Math Club is sponsored by Mrs. Ryan and is open to those students enrolled in Algebra 2-Trig., Advanced Math I, and Advanced Math II.

Science Club

Row 1 — J. DeMann, S. Miller, S. Laurich, B. Szczepanik, S. Fulmer, C. Miller, B. Kelley, J. Robinson, J. Failor, L. Lonchick; Row 2 — C. Heron, P. Putt, D. Dixon, D. Miller, J. Bell, D. The purpose of the Spanish Club is to acquaint the students with the culture of Hispano-American countries and to demonstrate the importance of studying a foreign language.

Its goals are to provide the students with an opportunity to meet and talk with foreign students and to allow the students to participate in a field trip concerning the Spanish arts.

During the spring the Fiesta provides a gay atmosphere and culminates with the initiations of new members.

Reading Club

The FFA is a national organization of students studying vocational agriculture.

The main purposes of the FFA are to develop agricultural leadership, service, character, cooperation, scholarship, and improved agriculture. Members learn through active participation how to conduct and take part in a public meeting, how to speak in public, and how to solve personal problems, among other things.

Farm Show

"Fondue-Dip Your Way Through A Meal"

The Home Economics Team placed seventh out of thirty-one entries for their demonstration "Fondue-Dip your way through a Meal." held at the State Farm Show in Harrisburg on January 11, 12, and 13, 1971.

The team consisted of Sheryl Fulmer, Elizabeth Foley, Barbara Gilbert, and Pamela Reedy as alternate.

They demonstrated various ways of making "fondue." They showed how to make a sirloin steak fondue, a cheese fondue and a chocolate sauce fondue in which they dipped various types of fruits, such as bananas, apples, and cherries.

The team was assisted in the preparation of their demonstration and in the writing of their script by Miss Ammons, their sponsor, who also accompanied them on their trip.

"Spread No Evil, Spray No Evil, Cause No Evil"

January 11, 1971 at the Pennsylvania State Farm Show, the Fort Cherry High School H. G. Parkinson FFA Demonstration team presented "Spread No Evil, Spray No Evil, Cause No Evil." Written by Calvin Cowden and Thomas Herbst, Robert Cummins and Larry McKinley helped in the presentation. They showed ways that farmers cause pollution and then showed steps to help prevent it.

The team placed eighth out of twenty-eight teams and won a $30 cash prize.

WALK-ONS

"Street Scene"

The Jr. Class Play, entitled "Street Scene," written by Elmer L. Rice, is an outstanding drama which was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in 1929.

It is the story of the lives of thousands of people who are outcasts of middle-class America; the story of people who are stranded on an island of poverty and despair in the midst of a sea of prosperity. It is the story of the slum dwellers of America — the story of their great hopes and ambitions and their small pleasures.

"Street Scene" is a play which is as relevant to today as it was in 1929 because it deals with a problem that most of us are unacquainted with — and, therefore, unconcerned with.

Now, remember to catch her.

"Exit the Body" tells of a woman mystery writer who rents a New England house which was supposed to be the rendezvous point for some stolen jewels. The focal point of the set is the closet which opens into a living room and into a library. In the closet is found a body which promptly disappears only to be succeeded by a second body. The hunt for the jewels reaches a climax at Two a.m. when four couples, all unknown to each other, turn up to search.

From the opening laugh to the final line, this play is guaranteed to make any audience cry with laughter.

A Time for Us

The class of 1971 presented the Junior Prom "A Time for Us" on a beautiful, warm May evening in the Fort Cherry High School Gymnasium.

Passing over a draw bridge, the couples entered a courtyard in blue, green, purple, and hot pink. The lovely garden scene in the middle of the gym also added to the atmosphere. Most of the couples danced to the soft, romantic music, while others relaxed and enjoyed the lovely surroundings.

Immediately following the prom was the post-prom. All the couples enjoyed a variety of delicious foods that were served. They then returned to the gymnasium where the music was provided by the "Affections."

At 5 a.m. the couples left the lovely medieval courtyard, carrying memories they will always cherish of the 1970 Prom.

The 1970-71 Ranger football team completed the season with a 5-4 record under the coaching staff headed by James Garry. The team's well-rounded offense totaled up a score of 97 points through the efforts of fullback Keith Loughry and halfbacks Ray Chiff and John Vernillo. The other Rangers contributed to the winning season along with right tackle, Rich Semenick, who was part of the rugged defense. The season ended with victories over F.C.'s biggest rivals — West Allegheny and Burgettstown.

Richard Semeniek — Dr. Charles M. Hughey Award Winner

Chosen as the 1970-71 recipient of the Dr. Charles M. Hughey Award is senior letterman, Richard Semeniek. The senior who receives this award is selected for his good moral character, high scholastic record, and outstanding athletic ability.

Participating in football since junior high, Rich worked his way up to be captain of the team along with the position of offensive and defensive tackle this year. Other accomplishments for Rich during his senior year include being chosen for the first string of the W.P.I.A.L. class A all-star team and the Black Hills All-Conference team.

As for other activities, he is President of the Science Club, Vice-President of the Varsity Club and an active member of the FTA, Math Club, and National Honor Society.

Rich plans to enter the University of Pittsburgh in the fall and to continue his football career in college. The Panorama staff congratulates Rich on his many achievements and wishes him the best of luck for the future.

Coach — Mr. Dellapina

So close, yet not close enough. This year's fine golf team, coached by Mr. Dellapina, was knocked out of first place when they lost to Wash. High in the last match of the season.

Along with Doug Weir, four-year letterman, Dean Danjou, went on to compete in the W.P.I.A.L. tournaments at Montour only to be disqualified.

One of the season highlights was when Freshman, Jeff Phillips, made a hole-in-one at the Avella match.

This year's record of 8 and 2 shows what a successful team it was. Congratulations for a great season!

This year's 1970-71 Section 12 Class B basketball team ended the season with an 8-14 record. Although this record of wins does not seem impressive, the breaking of three school records will stand for years to come — individual and team rebounding and field goals.

Next year's team will have to find replacements for the six fine seniors they will be losing: Regis Mucha, Jerry Miller, Francis Mullens, Ed Thomas, Al Harris, and Vic Lescovitz.

A hearty congratulations is extended to Coach Sprowls and the 1970-71 team for a great season. Good luck in 1972!!

For the second year in a row the wrestling team turned in a very commendable season. This year's team, although very young, still managed to have their second straight winning season, posting a 7-6-1 record, and against some of the toughest wrestling in the district. This year's team and individual accomplishments are quite impressive in view of the stiff competition faced. This season the team scored their first and second shutouts in the school's history. The first, 62-0 over South Park, and the second, 55-0 over South Side Beaver. It also marked the third straight year that rival Burgettstown was stopped in their attempt to defeat the Ranger's, being held to a 23-23 tie.

Team-wise the Rangers led the opposition in total statistics in all departments except one. The team ended up second in the Peter's Township Christmas Tournaments and second in the W.P.I.A.L. Section V Tournament, winning four titles, two more than the team that won the title.

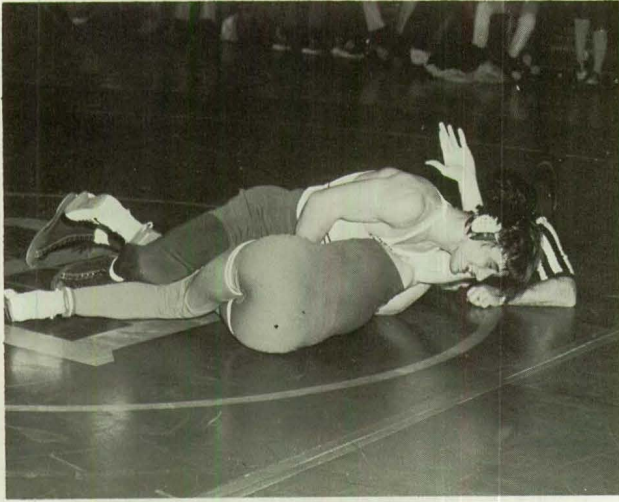

Individually, the Ranger mat-men posted some very fine records. Dave Cowden was undefeated in dual meets at 145 lbs., with a 11-0 record. Rich Furda had a fine 17-3-1 record, including a championship at the Peter's Township Tournament, and the championship of W.P.I.A.L. Section V. Jeff Allison also climaxed his fine four years with the W.P.I.A.L. Section V Championship. Chuck Roble successfully defended his Peters Township Championship for the second year in a row.

Sophomores Dave White, John Vernillo, and George Weaverling also had good seasons. White and Vernillo both won the Peter's Township and the Section V Tournaments. White ended the season 16-4-1 and Vernillo 17-2-1. Weaverling, in his first season, ended with an 8-5-1 record.

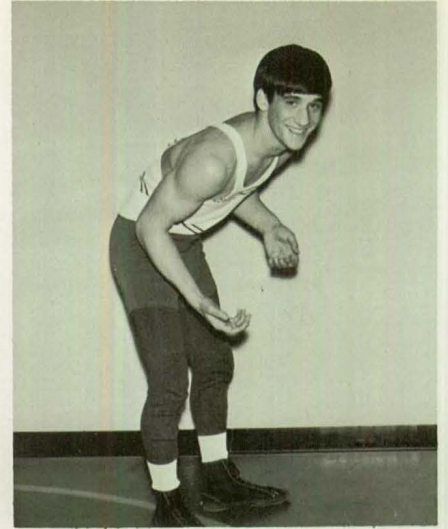

Juniors Tom McQuillan and Mark Hospodar also added much to the team's success. McQuillan posted 9 victories and was runner-up at Peters Township. Mark had a 12-7 record, and was runner-up in both the Peter's Township and Section V Tournaments, to the 1970 Defending State Champion.

Best of luck next year to our wrestling team.

MR. RODNEY ALLSHOUSE

Through his classes of earth science, Mr. Allshouse reveals his knowledge of the scientific world in an interesting way. His many experiments and demonstrations help students understand the basic concepts of science. He sponsors the junior high science club.

Helping the senior high girls and boys with the basic skills of home economics is the job of Miss Ammons. Her ready wit and keen sense of humor make her classes informal as well as informative. She always finds a spare moment to advise the Future Homemakers of America.

MISS DOLORES AMMONS

The formaldehyde-smelling room is where the new head of the science department, Mr. Antoszeski, teaches. This popular man teaches several biology courses. Being very sports-minded, he works with the junior high football team and the varsity wrestlers.

MR. RICHARD ANTOSZESKI

MRS. JEANETTA BARTINS

Mrs. Bartins, Fort Cherry's librarian, is often rearranging misplaced books among towering shelves. This kind-hearted lady is always willing to help any student who is seeking information. Being sponsor of the librarians, she lets the members get vital experience in library work.

MRS. VIRGINIA BEE

Mrs. Bee is one of the friendliest teachers at Fort Cherry. She teaches academic typing, business English, and shorthand I with the utmost patience. She even takes time out of her busy schedule to help sponsor the Business Club.

Being co-sponsor of the Business Club, Mrs. Bell prepares her students for the world of business, and consumer ed. classes along with her typing classes give them a firm background. This energetic teacher is an asset to the commercial department.

MRS. NANCY J. BELL

A man acutely aware of the value of a good sense of humor is Mr. Bershok. He aids the boys in making diagrams of their projects before the actual constructions, so that they won't start to make a table and end up with a stool. His students have to use fine craftsmanship to meet his standards.

MR. RUSSELL J. BERSHOK

*To Scott,
Best of luck
Mr. Burns*

Mr. Burns, director of the junior high band teaches some general music classes and also gives private lessons to prospective musicians. Patience and endurance are two best words which can be employed in the description of him. In addition to all his regular duties, he works with the senior high stage band and brass ensemble.

MR. G. RICHARD BURNS

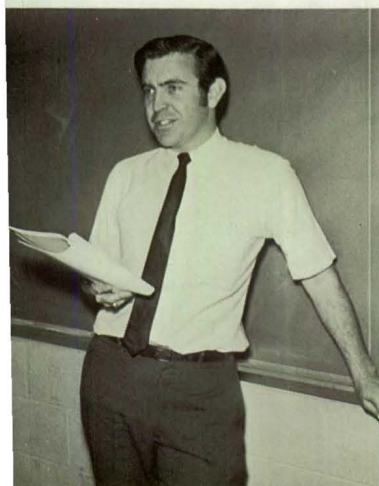

MR. PATSY E. CALABRESE

Checking-on chronically absent students by visiting their homes is one of Mr. Calabrese's jobs as Home-School Visitor. Despite his routine procedure, he still manages to remain enthusiastic and energetic with utmost poise. His cheerful manner and witty humor make his presence enjoyable.

MRS. SADIE LEE BURNS

MR. T. LEE CARTER

Mr. Carter teaches vocational agriculture to senior high students. He always has complete command of his students and encourages them to try to do their best. His methods are proven by the success of his students in the FFA competitions.

Through many years of experiences, Miss Cowden has gained a great understanding of the problems in teaching. Her most important work centers around her speech and English literature classes. Many students in the past have chosen a career in teaching as a result of her club, The Future Teachers of America.

MISS ELSIE COWDEN

Mrs. Cunning is a qualified member of the commercial department. She expects nothing less than the best from the students in her typing, general business, and business math classes. Through her criticism, she aids the cheerleaders in perfecting their performances.

MRS. CAROLE L. CUNNING

MR. JOHN B. CUNNING

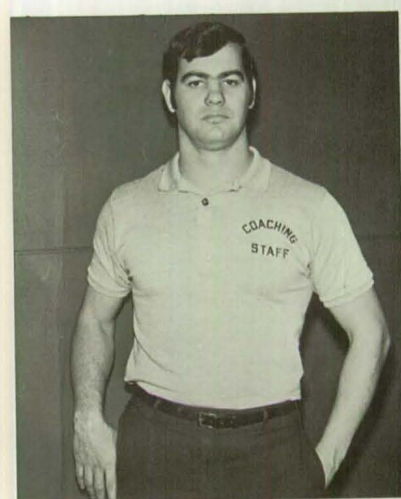

One of our most capable gym teachers is Mr. John Cunning. His students must strive to meet high expectations in every type of physical endeavor. Some of his pupils get to know him better through their relationship in cross country and basketball.

MR. DOMINICK DeFILIPPIS

Teaching the rudiments of French to his students, Mr. DeFilippis leads them into a new culture. Through repetition, his students gain oral ability; while writing drills develop the written language. He also assists in sponsoring the French Club.

As Fort Cherry's head wrestling coach, Mr. Dellapina trains the students in his physical education classes in the same austerity as his wrestlers. Through his personal experiences in wrestling he is able to convey good techniques to his boys. He is also noted for the admirable job he's done with the golf team.

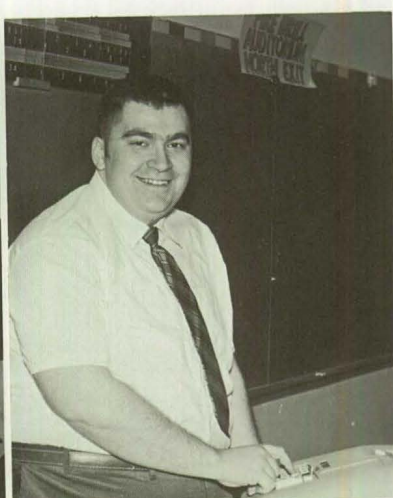

MR. RONALD J. DELLAPINA

Enriched by her study in Puerto Rico and trips to Spain, Miss Evans teaches Spanish I, II, III, and a recently established IV of which she is very proud. In her classes students examine the folklore and customs of the Spanish-speaking peoples. She encourages careers in Spanish through the Spanish Club.

MISS DIANA C. EVANS

MR. JOHN B FILOSI, JR.

B

Many students find that Mr. Filosi is able to make chemistry easier, because he has the knack of finding the problems of his students and alleviating them. By this method, his students share his enjoyment of the subject.

Realizing the need for better drivers, Mr. Garry promotes safe driving habits. His soothing attitude helps the students survive the big moment — their driver's test. As head football coach, his strong desire to win inspires his athletes.

MR. JAMES J. GARRY

MRS. CONSTANCE A. HALL

A teacher's responsibility does not end in the classroom is a belief of Mrs. Hall. Her friendly nature makes her a favorite with all she comes in contact. She directs the junior class play and sponsors the reading club.

MR. ARTHUR J. HANNA

Mr. Hanna, a most dedicated teacher, is kept occupied teaching his many classes of civics. Students know him by his interesting lectures and his easy-going manner. Besides using maps and charts, he permits his freshmen students to hold mock trials.

Mr. Hillman is one of the nicest teachers at Fort Cherry. He teaches general math I and II, and American History. In teaching the practicality of math, his students naturally pay more attention in his classes.

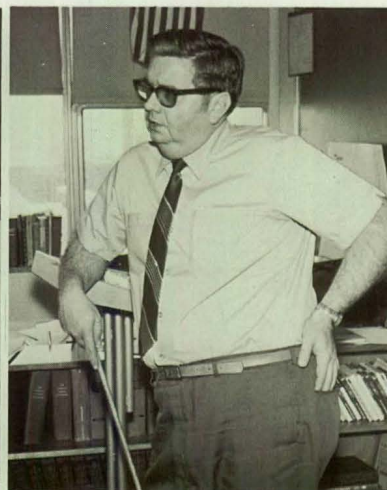

MR. JAY C. HILLMAN

Teaching English to seventh graders is not an easy assignment, but Mrs. Hitchcock always seems to enjoy it. However trying her schedule may be, she is constantly ready with a cheerful smile and a solution to every problem.

MRS. HELEN T. HITCHCOCK

MR. JOHN P. HORNER

By staying after school to help dramatics students Mr. Horner conveys his experiences in acting. Also, teaching ancient history to seventh graders, he provides a background in early civilizations. Aside from the usual assignments, his students are required to make projects depicting something previously covered.

MRS. DOROTHY IRWIN

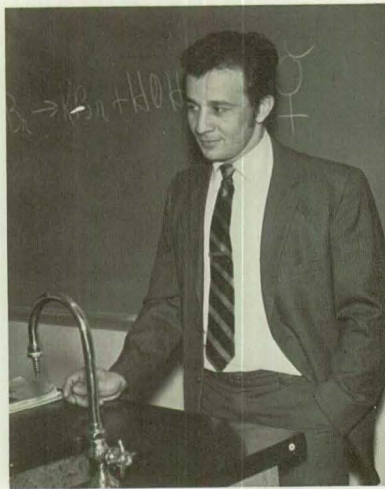

Mrs. Irwin is one of the clerical workers in our office. A life saver of many hungry students, she distributes lunch slips and keeps the records of various organizations. This efficient worker helps the office run to perfection.

Mr. Johnston, the special ed. teacher, is well liked by students and teachers alike because of his fine personality. Two of his virtues are patience and understanding. If any of his students needs help, he is always ready with a willing ear.

MR. RAYMOND P. JOHNSTON

Teaching seventh and eighth grade science is the job of Mr. Kohuchi. His good nature and well-rounded personality keep his students happy even though he is a strict disciplinarian. Among his other activities, he directs the junior high wrestlers.

MR. LOUIS A. KOBUCHI

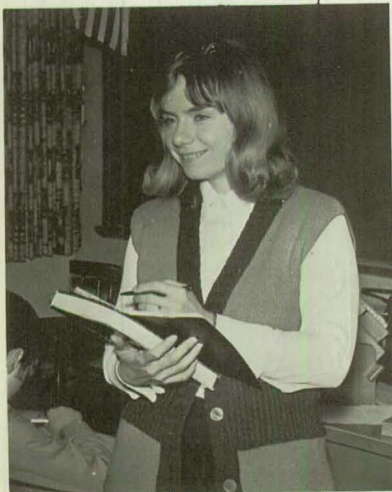

MISS LAUREL J. KING

Teaching eighth graders the importance of the correct use of grammar is a principle concern of Miss King. Students find that they must stay alert in order to meet her standards in the classroom. Her friendly manner, her kind-hearted nature and her willingness to lend a hand to anyone who needs it, make her a real asset in the English Department.

Junior high reading is taught by Mrs. Linkesh. In her classes, she tries to employ workable, yet original teaching methods. She is well-known for her friendly attitude and genuine concern for her students.

Instructing sophomores the basics of biology is not always a simple matter. Mr. Linkesh has the distinctive ability to impart a degree of scientific knowledge to the most unscientific mind. He also teaches an earth science course.

MRS. FRANCES K. LINKESH

MR. FRANCIS J. LINKESH

Any student going on to school, whether business, technical or college, can always receive help from Mr. Loughman. He makes himself available for consultation with students. National Honor Society and senior high Student Council are also under his guidance.

MR. RALPH E. LOUGHMAN

Assisting senior high students in more advanced phases of shop, Mr. Lukan covers his assignments well. The many products of excellent quality turned out by his students are an indication of his success. As a football coach, he takes justifiable pride in their achievements.

MR. EUGENE R. LUKAN

Enriched by a recent trip to Italy, a tenth-grade English teacher who really enjoys reading and writing is Mr. Lusi. There is no time for loafing in his classes since he covers a wealth of information in literature. He is recognized as an important and distinguished member of the faculty.

MR. FRED LUSI

MRS. VERONICA J. McCALMONT

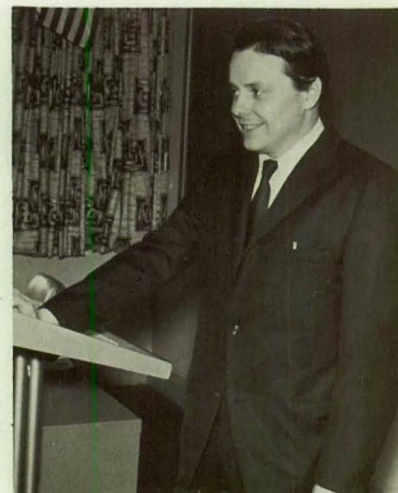

Helping seventh graders solve the mysteries of modern mathematics is the feat well accomplished by Mrs. McCalmont. Her good sense of humor and her modern teaching methods have won the respect of her students. Her cheerful personality brings joy to all she comes in contact with.

As the supervising principal's secretary, Mrs. McVicker is a woman of many skills. After her regular activities of taking dictation and typing, she makes up the payroll. She can handle any matter with complete competence.

MRS. MARY McVICKER

Giving students their first real insight into American literature is the task of Mr. Donald H. Morrison. Employing his dramatic talents, he always manages to amaze his students. Being a master of writing, he enjoys helping any student who has a problem writing.

MR. DONALD H. MORRISON

Teaching a variety of English subjects Mr. Noll makes his students do their best. Well-read, he favors his classes with interesting bits of information not found in any textbooks. His cheerful personality initiates an atmosphere of informality necessary to run The Pinnacle.

MR. RICHARD G. NOLL

MISS VIRGINIA O'BRYON

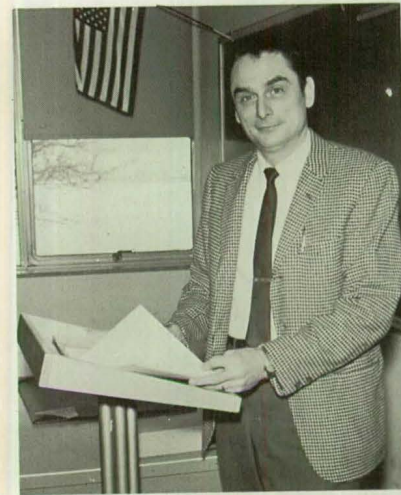

Through her use of prodding remarks, Miss O'Bryon stimulates her seniors' interest in world affairs. One of her theories is that a knowledge of government is essential to good citizenship. She instills the opinion in her students. Without her help, this yearbook wouldn't be possible.

MR. HARVEY PANTZIS

Mr. Pantzis is constantly looking for new approaches to the French language. He teaches not only the language, but the thoughts expressed in literature. In his classroom, he is always willing to discuss school problems with his students — provided they speak French. Naturally, he is sponsor of the French Club.

Mr. Prandini is a well-liked and knowledgeable member of the history department. Instructing several different courses of history, he is never at a loss for an answer or never hesitates to explain some difficult material. One of his extracurricular activities is assisting the junior-high basketball team.

MR. HARRY PRANDINI

Looking in upon one of Mr. Pusateri's classes, you will find him standing by his podium, without which he seldom teaches. Love of country prompts his enthusiasm for American history. When any problem arises in his class, he handles it masterfully and in good humor.

MR. SALVADORE PUSATERI

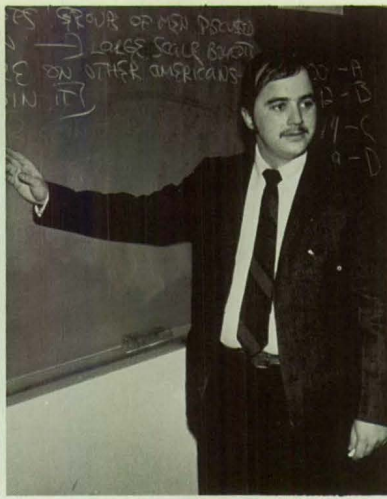

MISS SUSAN RANDOUR

Miss Randour is well known by her participation with her classes. She can bring out the finer points of any activity, such as trampoline or parallel bar routines. Her reassuring manner gives her students a feeling of confidence when attempting the most difficult feat.

One of Fort Cherry's fine instructors, Mr. Robinson, teaches the fundamentals of mathematics to eighth graders. By maintaining order in his classes, he makes his students work hard, but his unique manner of doing it lets them enjoy their work.

MR. HOWARD ROBINSON

MR. FRANK S. ROHM

Educating eighth graders in the fundamentals of U.S. history is well accomplished by Mr. Rohm. He impresses upon his students the ability to think for themselves, a quality that will undoubtedly be helpful in the future. He has also become known to the senior high since he is the tennis coach.

MRS. PATRICIA RYAN

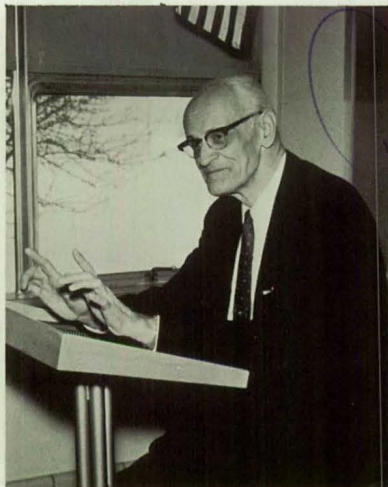

Mrs. Ryan, a very conscientious and understanding teacher, always enters the classroom well prepared. Besides sponsoring the Math Club, she teaches algebra, algebra II-trig, and advanced math I. Her unique sense of humor is enjoyed by her students.

One of Mrs. Smiley's assets is that she teaches her students how to manage an office. She teaches shorthand I and II and office practice, which includes the proper use of business machines. She is one of our fine staff of commercial teachers.

MRS. MARIE L. SMILEY

During the few minutes before classes begin in the morning, Mr. Snyder will be found maintaining peace and order in room 156. As a ninth grade English teacher, his expert knowledge is invaluable. Being able to get his students to do the best they can is one of his most commendable qualities.

MR. LESTER I. SNYDER

MR. DUANE SPROWLS

One of the busiest members of the faculty is Mr. Sprowls. He possesses the ability to make even the duller facets of world cultures and POD alive and exciting. Conducting the senior magazine campaign and coaching the basketball and baseball teams keeps him on his toes.

MR. BENJAMIN STASKO

Mr. Stasko has a diversified background. He teaches mechanical drawing, electricity, and Advanced Math II. Precision and accuracy, two of his outstanding traits are transferred to students. He sponsors the Electronics Club.

Mr. Tokar is one of our capable Guidance Counsellors. Among his regular duties of advising students, he helps to create better student-teacher relationships. He is sponsor of Junior High Student Council and National Honor Society. He is also an assistant Senior High Football Coach.

MR. EDWARD TOKAR

Fort Cherry's Assistant Librarian is Mrs. Thomassy. Taking care of the desk work, mending books, filing magazines, and distributing work to student librarians are all duties performed by her. She helps the library maintain a smooth running order.

MRS. BETTY THOMASSY

MISS MARY ANN TRZCINSKI

As an art teacher, Miss Trzcinski teaches seventh, eighth, and advanced art for Senior High students. Because she possesses talent and a keen awareness of the beauty found in art. She has no trouble inspiring her students to make creative projects. In fact, she even lets her homeroom express their talents during the 3-A period.

MR. KENNETH TUMA

Conducting Senior High, Junior High, and Adult Choruses are some of Mr. Tuma's many activities. Sharing the responsibility of the General Music Classes, he enlarges students' understanding of music. Without a doubt, he helps them appreciate classical music by explaining its meaning.

Behind the scenes of the Senior High Band stands Mr. Vroble, who through music lessons and rehearsals creates music at its finest. He teaches Elementary Band and is in charge of all beginner students. We are indebted to him for the intricate halftime shows at every football game.

John Vroble

MR. JOHN VROBLE

MISS RUTH WHITE

Miss White teaches Phys. Ed. to most of the girls. The best girls join the elite GAA and GLC (for Junior High) which she sponsors. The groups are always busy from Saturday bowling to intramural volleyball. Behind all these activities is the idea that physical fitness is a necessity.

If awards were given for patience, Miss Will would certainly be the deserving recipient. Anyone who can survive the confusion of the beginner homemakers deserves more than a medal. Besides her regular activities, she sponsors the active Junior High Future Homemakers of America.

MISS VIRGINIA WILL

Mrs. Williamson is always buzzing around the office taking care of the smallest tasks which keep the office in perfect order. This sweet-smiling secretary is always willing to help a student in need.

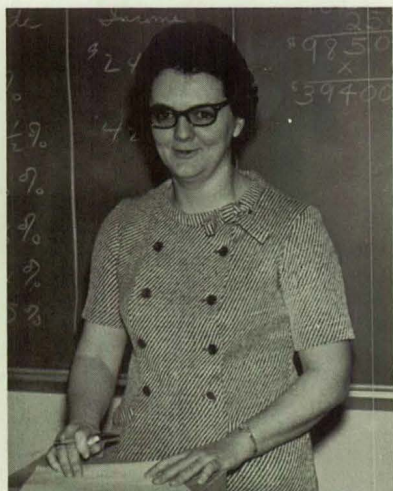

MRS. CONNIE WILLIAMSON

MRS. EDITH WILSON

Mrs. Edith Wilson is Fort Cherry's reading specialist. Her poised manner is essential in correcting a student's bad habits. Consequently her students are being prepared for future, more difficult reading material.

MISS MYRTLE ZIMMERMAN

Although quiet, Miss Zimmerman is never lost for words in conveying her point. Her classes of Bookkeeping I and II are always bustling with activity. Urging students to do things well is one other of her pet projects.

MRS. LILLIAN TAYLOR

Introducing the world we live in with her interesting explanations of geography, Mrs. Taylor manages to keep the attention of her restless Junior High students. Visual aids also help her with class discussions.

MRS. JUDITH THOMAS

Known for making both geometry and algebra fun, Mrs. Thomas is a very idealistic person. Her awareness of school matters and how they affect her students influences the way she handles class. She always ends her classes with a smile.

Mr. Gerry Gaul began teaching at the beginning of the second semester as a substitute in the Math Department.

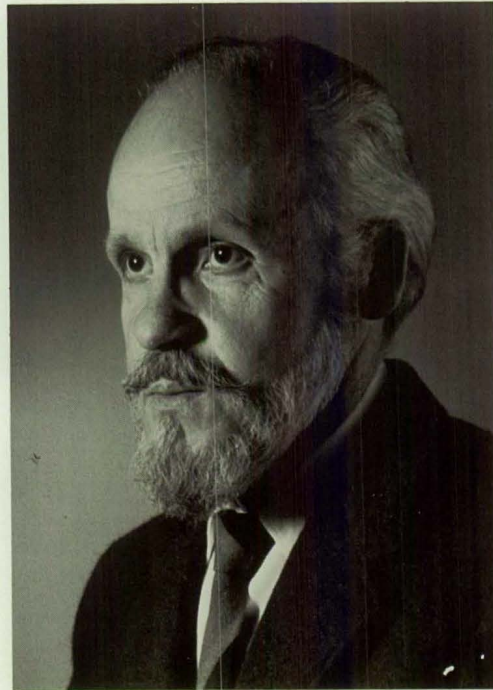

*Best Wishes
Mrs. Gaul*

MISS JUDY HATFIELD
MR. GERALD W. COWDEN

In Memoriam

MR. ELBERT DAVIS

Anyone who knew Mr. Davis will remember him. As teacher, colleague, artist, or friend, as all of these he was remarkable. His students will remember him for his imaginative teaching and for his marvelous tirades he was so capable of delivering and so quick to forget. His colleagues will remember him more for the richness of his general knowledge. He could talk intelligently on almost any subject. Those who saw his paintings will remember well the sensitivity with which he could render the beauty in nature. One looked differently at a tree after having seen one of his trees. His friends, of course, will have their own special remembrances of him. Anyone who knew him will long remember this special man.

Seated: Miss Cowden, Miss O'Bryon, Mrs. Bee; Standing: Mr. Morrison, Mr. Sprows, Mr. Pusateri

The graduating class of 1971 wishes to thank our senior sponsors for their assistance, patience, understanding, and donation of time which, when combined together, have helped to make our senior year a pleasant memory and success.

D.A.R. Award

Each year the senior class has the honor and privilege of choosing a girl to receive the Daughters of the American Revolution Award. The class of 1971 has selected Deidre Hirschfeld as this year's recipient. Four basic qualities were considered in our selection: Service, Character, Dependability, and Patriotism. A girl must exhibit these four qualities in order to be worthy of the D.A.R. Award.

Deidre is a fourth year member of the French Club and Band. She has participated in District Orchestra and Mid-East Band. Deidre is an active member of the Drama Club and Reading Club, and she worked on the Administration section of the Panorama.

Deidre plans to study engineering for the next few years. We wish her the best of luck throughout her life.

Deidre Hirschfeld

American Legion Auxiliary Award

This year Cheryl LeMal has been chosen by her classmates to receive the Good Citizenship Award sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. The class of 1971 chose Cheryl on the following qualities: Service, Honor, Scholarship, Americanism, Leadership, and moral and physical Courage.

Cheryl participates actively in Business Club, Chorus, and G.A.A. She has been a Student Council representative for the past six years and is the secretary of the senior class. Cheryl also received the American Legion Award in eighth grade.

The senior class wishes Cheryl a happy and successful future.

Cheryl LeMal

While thoughts of graduation are flooding our minds and we are dreaming of our future life apart from Fort Cherry, we are reminiscing over the past years. This brings back pangs of joy and sorrow.

We look to the future, confident that we have prepared ourselves to the best of our ability to face, if not to conquer, all the challenges we will meet.

If we embrace the qualities of courage, understanding, wisdom, humbleness, and the ability to communicate with others, we will find the success each of us wishes to attain throughout our lives.

Life will be brimming with joy and sorrow, hope and disappointment. But, it will always be comforting to look back on these years and recall the oneness we shared, as a class and as a school. Thus, our motto is and always will be, "United we stand . . ."
