First Fort Cherry Graduation Tonight

The first Commencement in the history of newly-formed Fort Cherry Joint High School will be held tonight, with diplomas to be presented to 126 members of the Class of 1960.

Commencement exercises also will be held at Burgettstown Union and Charleroi High Schools.

The Fort Cherry Commencement will be held in the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. with supervising principal James C. Dunn presiding. Dr. C. Herman Grose, Professor of Educational Administration at the University of Pittsburgh, will give the address.

There are 35 high honor and honor students in the senior class. Two high honor students selected by the class to give orations are Ann Carol Hospodar and Kathleen Theresa Ambrose. A senior class gift will be presented by William Savage Lockhart Tornabene, president of the class.

Diplomas will be presented by Dr. J. K. McCarrell, president of the Fort Cherry board of education.

The high school mixed chorus will sing two numbers. The invocation will be offered by Rev. Richard A. Morledge and the benediction will be pronounced by Rev. Joseph P. Lonergan.

Burgettstown Union will hold its Commencement at 7 p.m. in Hill Memorial Stadium.

The address to the senior class, "No Information," will be delivered by Dr. Harold T. Weiland, Dean of Instruction at Slippery Rock State College.

Supervising principal Dr. James J. Tinney will present awards. The class will be introduced by principal R. Donald Hall and diplomas will be presented by Van Nest Weighmann, president of the Burgettstown Area Board of School Directors.

There will be the welcome by Theodore Mankowski, president of the senior class of 137 students; a tribute to parents by the class officers and two songs by the girls ensemble.

The Union High School band will play the processional and recessional. Rev. Ernest Robertson, pastor of Westminster United Presbyterian Church at Burgettstown, will give the invocation and benediction.

Charleroi Area High School's 291-member senior class will graduate at exercises in Charleroi Stadium. In case of inclement weather, the Commencement will be held in the junior high school.

The speaker will be Hubert I. Teitelbaum, U.S. District Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania. "
