General Information.

Location.

HICKORY ACADEMY is located at Hickory, Mt. Pleasant Township, Washington County, Penn'a; surrounded by a beautiful and fertile farming region. The town is noted for the high moral tone of its citizens, its excellent society and healthfulness. A large and well furnished building has been erected in order to accommodate the rapid increase of students.

Object.

The object of the academy is to give young men and women a practical business education and a preparation for college or seminary. Special attention is given to Latin, German and the common English branches. No pains are spared by Board of Trustees and Instructors to give students every advantage of a first class Academy.

Text Books.

Goff's and Wentworth's Arithmetics; Raub's English Grammar; Barnes' U. S. History; Westlake's Common School Literature; Wentworth's School Algebra; Goodrich's English History; Rolfe's Edition of Shakespeare's Plays; A. and G. Latin Grammar; Kelsey's Cæsar; Greenough's Virgil; Wentworth's Geometry; Gray's Botany; Hutchinson's Physiology; Steele's Natural Philosophy; E. Diplomas.

A course of study covering three years of work has been prepared; an outline of which has been given. Students completing the course will be granted diplomas. The Academy is a chartered institution. Students holding diplomas from this institution can be admitted to our first class colleges without examination.

Literary Society.

A literary society composed of the students of the Academy, and ex-students, and under the direction of the principal, meets every Thursday evening.

Library.

A library of choice books is open to the students; also magazines and papers. The library contains nearly two hundred volumes.

Music.

Students desiring to study instrumental music have the opportunity at very reasonable rates. Some time is also given during the year to chorus work.

Tuition.

The charges for tuition will be:

For the First Term, 13 weeks	$12.00
For the Second Term, 13 weeks	12.00
For the Third Term, 10 weeks	9.00

No students received for less than one term unless by special arrangement with Board of Trustees. Tuition payable in advance.

Boarding and Rooms.

Good boarding and rooms can be obtained at very reasonable rates, and by boarding in clubs, expenses can be made very low.

Religious Privileges.

A short period is given to devotional exercises each morning, conducted by the Principal, at which service all students are required to be present.
